

James Ralph Andres

August 14, 1943 - September 18, 2021

James Ralph Andres of Chester went home to be with Jesus on September 18, 2021. He was 78 years old.

Born on August 14, 1943, in Baltimore, MD, he was the only son of Louis Ralph and Ruth Anna (Sherman) Andres.

Jim was married to Anna Virginia (Gardner) on December 16, 1961. She was the love of his life for over 60 years. Together they raised 3 beautiful children. Jim gave his life to Christ in 1976 and made it his mission to share the Gospel to as many as he possibly could. He was in the Gospel Music Ministry with his wife, AnaBel, from 1979-1998 and worked with World Vision International for 3 ½ years. He was a carpenter for 50 years, oftentimes working alongside his son, grandsons, and great-grandsons. He was extremely proud to be the grandfather of 17 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. Jim loved to have Bible studies, to pray for others and to share his knowledge of Christ. He also loved spending time with family, laughing, and was always wearing that infectious smile. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend. To know him was to love him.

James is survived by his wife, AnaBel: his sons, James A. Andres (Yvonne), Wayne A. Andres (Jean), and daughter, Lorie M. Crews (Charles).

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
