

James Morris Brady III

October 25, 1989 - August 19, 2016

James Morris Brady III, of Glen Burnie, MD, formerly of Grasonville, MD, was born on October 25, 1989; son of John Henry Gant, Jr, of Chestertown, MD, and Dorthea Dawn Gant, of Goldsboro, MD, and step-father, Gus Talley, Goldsboro, MD. He departed this life suddenly at the age of 26 on Friday, August 19, 2016, at University of Maryland Medical Center.

James, fondly known as "Brady, Jimmy, or Redz" and to his mother as her "sweet baby boy" attended Kent Island High School, in Stevensville, MD, and later received his GED in 2006. James was an entrepreneur and was always looking for a new way to earn money and run a business. He wanted people to see the potential in themselves and sought out each with such determination to be led and to lead others. He loved encouraging his friends, family, and even strangers he would meet, to set goals, focus on them, and work hard to achieve them.

His full-time job was a Sales Representative at Luna Floors, in which he took pride in that company for four years. Along the way, he met a strong and positive friend, which later turned into his mentor; Phil Gerdes. Outside of that, he started his own legacy, CEO of Brady Enterprise and Brady Holdings. In June, he became passionate about a company that he saw tremendous potential to take off successfully; UG Affiliates. He was ecstatic to share so much information and knowledge about this Sports App that was launching in September; as he reached over a thousand people worldwide.

Outside of work, James loved to travel, and spend time with his family, girlfriend, and friends. He touched many lives, and showed many people that they can surpass hard times, and make a way for themselves with the right people in their life, and the right mindset. James was a devoted Christian who loved the Lord. He always kept a positive mind and attitude, and that was contagious no matter where he went. James had amazing goals that he set with Courtney, to travel to many more parts of the world and build a home for their future together.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by girlfriend and the love of his life, Courtney Kennard of Glen Burnie, MD; a brother, John Henry Gant III, of Centreville, MD; a sister, Samantha Nice of Glen Burnie, MD; nephews, Mason Gant and Jeremiah Hill; and two nieces, Jocilyn Hill, Chester, MD, Andelynn Gant, Centreville, MD. James is preceded in death by his brother, Bruce Gant; uncle, Robert Benges; stepfather, Robert Nice; grandmother, Kathleen Sauers; and a great-grandmother, Dorthea Ferris.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, August 27, 2016, at 11:00 AM ,at Kent Island Methodist Church, Chester, MD, where a viewing will be held on Friday, August 26, 2016, from 6-8:00 pm, and also one hour prior to service. Burial will follow the service at Stevensville Cemetery.

Flower arrangements may be sent to Kent Island Methodist Church, 2739 Cox Neck Rd, Chester, MD, or memorial contributions may be made in his name to a charity of choice.

“ Dear Sweet Baby Boy

It has been one month since God called you home. I am so Lost without you.. You were not just my Son but your were my friend. The ache in my heart has not lessened and some days it increases; knowing I will never see , hear or feel you in my arms ever again. I am driving my self crazy with the Whys I just don't understand ?? You were a ray of Sunshine and a breath of fresh air up this earth and your absents Hurts. I know Mother teach their children but son you also taught me ...what a sweet pleasure you were to me. My treasure was having you at my side. Oh how I earn for one more call from you , a chance at least to say Good Bye ! The wholes you have left behind feel like the could swallow the world as you left them behind only memories of days gone bye. Yes they are comforting but they can't compare to the real Guy! Please come visit me often in my dreams so even for a moment it may seem like you are still here with me. I LOVE YOU TO INFINITY AND BACK A LOVE THAT CAN NEVER LOSE TRACK UNTIL MET AGAIN AND I HAVE YOU BACK.

...never thought this day would come 😞 it has been a month since you left me and my whole world has changed. My days seem longer and nights aren't the same. All I have left are memories and pictures 💔 I didn't just lose my boyfriend; I lost my best friend, my heart, my voice of reasoning, my world, my mentor. You left too soon babe, without saying good bye. Does this pain ever get easier? Those four words... "how are you doing?" will never be easy to answer. Truth is, I'm not doing good at all. I'm in pain, my heart is destroyed and I feel completely lost 😞 But Heaven gained the most Joyous Angel of them all. God needed you more than I did. Continue to watch over me, guide me and protect me. I LOVE YOU now, forever and always.

A huge "Thank you" to everyone that has been here for me. The prayers, flowers, cards, phone calls, texts, pm, etc. have been extremely helpful and encouraging during this process. I truly apologize for not getting back to everyone. Please continue to keep me in your prayers as I need them the most right now. 🙏💜💚

“Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord, the Lord himself, is my strength and my defense; he has become my salvation.”

James Brady you will never be forgotten. My heart is aching. I'm at a loss for words, Phil said a lot of what keeps running through my mind and so many others I'm sure are feeling and thinking as well. You were an inspiration, and full of so much life and love. I wish I could call you and talk to you right now man. :(:(:(To think, we were just talking yesterday and honestly we were both always so busy I just took for granted we would have a million more great conversations. :(:(:(Wow! Unbelievable! :(

Sometimes, the scariest thing about developing new relationships can be the thought that one day, at least in the natural, they must all end. One way or another, there will be a parting of ways; inevitable.

Today, at 4AM, ready or not, I received a phone call proclaiming this exact truth.

Today, the world lost a great heart. With no short order I say that today this world lost someone that believed in people when they had no belief in themselves, loved people when they thought all the love had run out, fought for people when their backs were to the wall, someone who yearned for knowledge, health, enlightenment, and much more, and sought out each with such a fierce determination to be lead and to lead others.

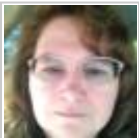

Today the world lost a loving Christian, a man who always had a smile to share and time to offer.

Today, I lost a friend, today I am heartbroken, many are.

James Brady. You will forever be missed, never be forgotten and always be loved. Rest in Eternal Piece my friend.

Today, God gain an amazing soul.

James Brady you would be so proud of me. I am hurting deeply but making sure I don't let it succumb my life into the bottom of a bottle and staying positive and strong like you wished I had done after Lori but wasn't able to. I remember your words strong. And have an amazing husband Mark that has held my arms up to make sure I don't slip down into depression any harder. I am doing all you would want. Hard as it is your words are strong in my head! I love you Cuzzo

Too many times, I have to say goodbye, to another angel that decides, that they want to fly. I guess this could be a lesson, maybe we all need to pay closer attention, see James Brady made the best decision, to follow the Lord and I think he completed his mission. To inspire all of us, do what we love, as long as we just trust, the creator up above, he will give everything because, his love is just enough.

That one time in college when James escorted me to my 2010 formal...❤️ I remember back in '08 when James was locked up, he had a friend of his reach out to me for my address. James and I hadn't talked in a minute so I was a little surprised by the message. When he finally wrote me, he told me about how he had recently given his life to Christ and just wanted to share it with someone who could appreciate it. From then on, he and I would write and share scriptures, talk about his daily struggles incarcerated and about my crazy college experiences. I remember being amazed at how much of the Bible he had already read and his understanding of the many scriptures. Over the past few days, I've been truly amazed by how much of an impact he had on so many of our lives. It's always crazy how memories with a person will constantly flood your mind, once they pass. He was really a great guy. James Brady, you will truly be missed...❤️

I've been patiently waiting for the right time to speak on everything. Waiting for wisdom and not emotion. And now is the time. God gave me a brother in law that words simply couldn't describe, a brother in law that NO ONE could ever fill that void. So I'm not gonna even try. But what I can say is I'M SO PROUD OF SO MANY PEOPLE! James Brady was our drive, or glue, our go to, and it would be so easy just to say screw it, without him nothing is possible. John Gant everyone is looking up to you for answers! The right thing to do. Realize this. Use that power as your brother would. If you fall now imagine the people that would fall with you. Keep your head up Baby! Show them what your brother was all about. What dreams and goals WE ALL are capable of! Samantha Marie Nice we all know your "a little" rough around the edges. But you have shown nothing but compassion and love. WE ALL NEED THAT BABYGIRL!! You got this! It's not Big Mantha it's time to be baby sis! And I've never seen you more on your A game and I'm so proud! Mama Dukes Dawn Gant I love you more than words could explain! You have now become the glue and you are tackling that so well. Courtney Kennard my heart and soul goes out to you! I love you and I'm always here! You were my sister in law this far and you always will be! And TO ALL THE FRIENDS AND FAMILY keep being strong, be there for one another. If I could say one thing that James wanted more than ANYTHING that would be us all together! SO LET'S DO THIS... ALL TOGETHER!!!!!!*

I don't like the way I feel right now. James Brady, it wasn't your time. I remember when you got out, your attitude, your idea's, bro you really shocked me, I was so impressed. You were grinding telling me how something big was going to happen. You were writing down every detail, every goal, and crossing it off your list. We were bullshitting and you were telling me about some plan and I said "James man, you really got your shit together man, I'm so proud", and you told me that "You inspired me in jail from outside and I swore I was going to be on my 'Mike Byars' when I got out". I almost shed a fucking tear, because I am sitting here looking at you thinking 'this guy is a monster, he isn't going to stop until he wins at life' and you saying that, you didn't even realize you were inspiring me. Man I was trying something new, you were paving a road.

I remember talking and we thought so similar we would just laugh sometimes, except one thing, I never brought up when you say shit like that, hoped you never called me out on it - you went out and stayed positive, not part time, full time, and you did it, you kept grabbing more opportunity and surrounding yourself in what you wanted, positivity, success, health, happiness. You were just hungry, always, and that was the part that inspired me that I didn't have.

Brother, it is literally impossible for me to ever forget you because I apply things I have learned from you everyday. We just looked at the same door and I got the opportunity to walk through it first, you showed me how to not stop walking when my knees were weak and my back was sore. You a better man than me and I will always love you and always come to you for your consultation.

It's been 24 hours since I received the news...I've just been trying to wrap my around the whole thing. Jesus James I just spoke to you bro. We were going to Vegas together in 2 weeks. I am completely heart broken..

James brother I want to say thank you for everything you've done for me in my life. You are solely responsible for who and where I'm at in life.

We met back in the day in G pod in county jail. We instantly bonded. We were both at rock bottom but your drive to get home and crush it in life and learn from your mistakes astonished me.

I knew you were special, I knew I had to keep you close...and i did. You had a drive, a determination that I've never seen. You were my role model, big brother, mentor and most of all my best friend. You would push me so hard every day, made me get out of my comfort zone, had Faith and believed in me when my own child hood friends or family didnt.

I owe everything to you brother. I now live the life I want because of you. I love you man, I don't know what I'm going to do without you but I do know this.. I promise I will continue what you started. I will help as many people as possible and believe in those who don't believe in themselves. Your light will continue to shine through me and all of those that you touched man. Love you bro!

From partying all night til day break in high school, to picking me up when I couldn't drive, to long convo about breaking family curses, to building a business for over a year, to many days good or bad we always stayed connected through high school, after school & since I have been in Atl. My #1 fan when i got clean. Always supported my dreams and never crossed the line. You gave SO MANY people hope to get out the streets, to be building a legacy and have the cord ripped can leave one so angry & hurt. My heart is so broken & my prayers go out to Dawn, John, Courtney & Sam. I love all of ya RIP son son. Still so unreal. #brady #redz #ArealOne #9years♥

"WHAT MOST PEOPLE FAIL TO REALIZE...

Is that we don't always finish with the people we started with. When you make a commitment to being successful you will outgrow people on the way. You will lose people you thought you would never go a day without talking to, because peoples lives change constantly. If you are on the path to success right now and you're feeling bad because you don't hang with the same people and do the same things. ITS OK!!! Its all part of the plan and you are exactly where you're supposed to be. If you don't let go of the things that are limiting you and holding you back, then you won't make room for the things that will give you abundance and take you to new levels! People are in your life for a REASON or a SEASON and seasons change but the reasons remain!! Be open to the new people, places, and things God want to bring to you and go get your blessing!

Misery loves company and when you're with the rest of the crabs in a bucket they will always try and pull you back in when you try to escape and be free!!! DON'T GIVE UP!! YOU DESERVE A BETTER LIFE!!!!" ~James Brady

RIP James Brady!!! Your words, advices, and messages will always be treasured little bro!!!

We will continue what you have started and leave a legacy for your family!!! 🙌🙏

Today is a very sad day, not only was he a close family friend, he was my second family, my other big bother. If I ever needed anything I knew always who to go to. It's so sad because we are family. We grew up together when we were kids. Your mom has always been my mom. Dawn Gant Samantha Marie Nice John Gant. I love you all so much . Anything you need and I mean anything please let me know. I know our family has been through a lot and lost a lot of our family members. But just know we have a wonderful angel, he is now with dad (robert) & Lori Marie He was taken way too soon, I'll never understand gods plan, but now he is safe and in the arms of angels. We can get through this, it'll take time to heal. But James wouldn't want us grieving, he would want us to know he ia safe and will always be with us He was a successful person and we were all so proud of who he was and his business. We all will love and miss you terribly James. Fly high babe. Love you always your little sister ❤️ James Brady

“ Reddy Redz..... We love you and miss you so much. You were family to us and Keith's life line. You two helped each other so much over the years from the bad to the good. I am so proud of both of you..... You two best the odds and changed. You Mr Brady are one of a kind and no one will replace that piece of heart you took from Keith and I There are so many memories we have with you from driving the "red neck" truck as you called it to living at our house with us to traveling together most recent st Thomas and many nights are relaxing and listening to you do what you do best!!! “ You were always there when I needed someone to talk or for any advice. After Lori died you helped me piece my life back together. You always told me I deserved the life I wanted and to never stop until I got it. All of your inspirational words will forever live on in my mind and heart. I will never stop fighting and working for what I want...for what my son wants and needs thanks to your words. I promise you. I miss you so much already. Rest in peace cuzzo. I know you're up there watching over us all holding loris hand and surrounded by the other family members lost.

“ James was my third Child he was always smiling and so full of life!!! He loved his Family, Friends and helping people to improve themselves as he had done. Life will never again be the same However not even death can extinguish the flame James had for life and God.
