

James Eugene Duvall

August 25, 1943 - January 12, 2015

James Eugene Duvall was born in Fairland, MD, in Montgomery County on August 25, 1943, and lived a full life until January 12, 2015, where he passed on peacefully at home in his sleep.

He was first married to Linda S. Page. Jim started his married life in Baltimore, MD, where he lived until he moved to the Eastern Shore in 1973 and then to Hurlock, Maryland in 1975.

His second marriage was to Joann Callahan. They lived in Cordova, MD.

Jim was a high school graduate and had a PhD in life lessons. He was involved in agriculture, law-enforcement and the poultry industry, but many of you around Easton would see the faces of Jim working for the local newspapers in advertising, or as the photographer he became, owning and operating A Perfect Image photography studio, or when he formed a family run local business with two of his sons called Valley Green produce that specialized in serving local businesses with pride and produce. In his last years, Jim was able to retire and enjoy life with his family.

Jim is survived by his mother, Beulah M. Jackson, 97, of Easton MD; three sons, Scott Duvall, Mike Duvall, and David Duvall; two stepsons, Billy Callahan and Tommy Callahan; a sister, Deanna Daniels; a granddaughter, Autumn Page Duvall; a stepgranddaughter, Brittany Koester; a stepgrandson, Brent Petett, and a step great-grandson, Brayden Koester.

Jim was predeceased by his father, William Lee Duvall, in 1986, and his stepfather, Harwood D. Jackson, in 2007.

Jim enjoyed the social aspect of life, dancing, laughing, loving, and just generally making people happy.

He loved the Lord and attended church. He was a member of several congregations including Belvedere Baptist Church and First Baptist Church of Hurlock.

“ Dear Daniells Family and Scott, Mike and David Duvall,

I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of your father and brother. I will always remember Jim for his laughter and sense of humor. He was a good guy. I carry fond memories of him. I know he suffered greatly at the end. He can now rest in the arms of our Father in Heaven.
