

James John Groh

March 30, 1974 - June 21, 2013

James John Groh, 39, of Chester, MD, died on Friday, June 21, 2013, at his residence.

Born in Baltimore, MD, on March 30, 1974, he was the son of and Nancy Sherman Groh and the late John Herman Groh. James grew up on the Eastern Shore attending Queen Anne County High School. He spent his career honing his carpentry skills, becoming a Master Carpenter.

James likes crabbing, fishing, hunting, and cooking. His greatest joy was hanging out with his son, Dylan, and his family.

He is survived by his son, Dylan John Groh of Chester, MD; mother, Nancy Groh of Chester, MD; brother, Eric Wayne Groh of Denton, MD; sister, April Lynn Groh and her fiancé John English, Jr, of Ridgely, MD; nephew, Rodney Hughes Denny, III, and Wyatt Lealand Rosenberry; and a niece, Sydney Lynn Rosenberry.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, July 2, at the Elks Lodge 2576, 2525 Romancoke Road, Stevensville, MD 21666.

There are no words to express how saddened I am to hear of Jimmy's passing. He graduated a couple of years ahead of me and I used to see him frequently when I lived in Grasonville several years ago. He was always very funny and could make you laugh at the drop of a pin, but he had a serious side to him when it came to Dylan, which I admired. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this difficult time.

Tina Buttner - June 25, 2013 at 12:36 PM

yes he did. he loved him more than life itself. That's what makes this doubly hard to believe.
