

James Parker Harrington Sr.

February 27, 1928 - September 18, 2013

James Parker “Jimmy” Harrington, Sr., died peacefully at his home on September 18, 2013. He was 85.

Born February 27, 1928, he was the son of the late John Thomas and Madge Amelia Harrington.

Raised on a farm in Queenstown, Jimmy always believed in hard work. He joined the Army and served in the Korean War. On June 9, 1951, he married his sweetheart, Dorothy L. Towers.

He worked many years as a truck driver, first with Kent Freight Lines and later retiring from Preston Trucking after 30 years of loyal service. Jimmy also loved to play and coach men’s softball. He helped start the Easton Moose Lodge Softball team and was a life long member of the Moose. He enjoyed hunting, his Chesapeake Bay Retrievers and his “morning meeting” at McDonalds in Walmart , exchanging “mostly true” stories with his friends. To know Jimmy, you knew he was a man who said what he meant and meant what he said.

He is survived by his children, Jamie Harrington, Terry Cooper (Lushie), Brenda Andrew, and JP Harrington (Diana); his grandchildren, Ashley Mullen (Eddie), Cody Cooper (Catherine), Madison Andrew, Brendan Andrew, Parker Harrington, and Leeloo Harrington; three great-grandchildren; a sister, Louise Harrison. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of almost 60 years,

A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, September 24, 2013, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., in Easton, where friends may call Monday evening from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

“ For me Uncle Jimmy was the last of his kind, and I mean that in the very best way possible. He left an indelible mark on the lives of all who knew him,, and an even deeper mark on those of us who loved him. Uncle Jim, like so many others, you left us too soon. We love you and will treasure your memory always
