

James Hill

July 10, 2005

James Kirby Hill, 76, of Queenstown, MD died Sunday, July 10, 2005 at Fairfield Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Crownsville, Maryland.

He was born in Fall River, Massachusetts in 1928, in a family of five. "Jim" enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1946, shortly before meeting and marrying Ellen Delores. He spent 23 years in the service becoming an officer in 1967. During his military service, he and his family lived in Guam, the Philippines, Japan, and Scotland with their home base being Silver Spring, Maryland. He finally retired with Ellen to Queenstown, Maryland. Upon retiring he began his second career of 22 years with the government at the N.S.A. James is remembered as a loving husband and father. A good and cheerful friend to all he encountered. Jim loved to sing and those around him enjoyed hearing him. A dedicated civil servant and patriot. We will always love and remember you.

He is survived by six children; James Hill and wife, Carole, Virginia Hill, Susan Potter and husband, Gene, Kirby Hill and wife, Clare, Nancy Berman and husband, Richard, and Daniel Hill and wife, Tonya; ten grandchildren, Kirby Jr., Tim, Jeff, Margene, Greg, Eric, Justin, Kate, Danielle and Elizabeth and one great grandchild, Kyle.

Services will be held on Thursday, July 14, 2005 at 11AM at St. Christopher's Catholic Church in Chester, MD. Friends and family may call on Wednesday,

July 13, 2005 between 6 and 8PM at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam
Funeral Home, P. A., 106 Shamrock Road, Chester, MD.
