

James M. Hollenczer

November 3, 1964 - March 12, 2017

James (Bo) M. Hollenczer of Stevensville, MD, died on March 12, 2017, at his home. He was 52.

Born on November 3, 1964, in Annapolis, MD, he was the son of the late Joseph Hollenczer and Virginia Bach.

In addition to his commitment to his work, he adored his family, friends, and socializing with neighbors. Bo was a dedicated father who always put his kids first. In addition, he welcomed others into his home and considered many others as part of the family.

Bo is survived by his wife of 19 years, Lara Hollenczer; his daughter, Elizabeth Hollenczer; his son, James Hollenczer; five sisters, Linda Oliver (Terry), Mary Newhouse (Ken), Sally Hollenczer, Donna Freeman (Dave) and Ginny Christian (Butch); five brothers, Bob Hollenczer, Dave Hollenczer (Dawn), Rich Hollenczer, Mike Hollenczer (Dawn), Russell Hollenczer (Teresa). He was preceded in death by Joe Hollenczer and Evelyn Cunningham.

In lieu of flowers, please celebrate Bo's life with your family and friends.

“ Lara and family:

Tami and I were very shocked and saddened to hear of Bo's passing. He always was an upbeat and friendly person. God Bless your family at this difficult time.

“ Bo touched three generations of the Myers clan creating beautiful homes for our parents and us and hiring on our son Scott. A man of his word, rare to find in most professions but nearly impossible in construction. We will miss his creative eye and good humor that made working with him a pleasure. Deepest regrets to his family.

“ I will always remember Bo as a mischievous little boy and how he got that nickname. I never thought that over 50 years later he would still be called Bo.

Our deepest sympathy to Lara, Elizabeth, and Jimmy.

“ I've personally have known Bo for nearly 18 years as a neighbor, a parent, a friend and business partner. Bo was a great person you could count on and he always had a way of staying calm - a great attribute. He was a wonderful parent who cherished his children. He will be missed and my sympathies to Lara, Elizabeth and Jimmy.
