will always remember the fun times when we were kids, the Patchett and the Hunter kids running and playing on the farm and just plain yelling and laughing, those were the simpler and good old days. I am sure there is fishing in heaven so have a go at it Jamie. my sincerest sympathy to your family.

“ To our wonderful neighbors. My friendship with Jamie goes back a long way, and living so close, we spent much time together sharing life stories, talking family, fishing and stupid guy stuff. He was always there for anything you needed, and his jokes and quick wit were one of a kind. Family meant everything to "Grumps" and he was so proud of his children. Jamie was my dear friend, and Mari and I will miss him dearly.
