“ I was so sorry to hear of Jimmy's passing. I meet him at the Wye mills Post Office while I was a Postmaster there. He was a true gentleman in ever since of the word. Very kind and always thoughtful, always asking for my husband George whom he knew through work at Elliot Wilson. His memory will be cherished by many. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this sad time. He will have a special place in Heaven and will be waiting for his loved ones to join him. What a joyful day that will be.

With fond memories,
