

James Albert Mack

April 20, 1929 - April 11, 2015

James Albert Mack of Chestertown, MD, died Saturday, April 11, 2015, at the University of Maryland Shore Nursing and Rehab. He was 85.

Mr. Mack was born April 20, 1929, in Forty Fort, PA, the son of the late Clarence Mack and Alma Davies Mack. He was a 1947 graduate of Wyoming Seminary. He continued his education and graduated from Bucknell University in 1952, with degrees in Psychology and Electrical Engineering. Mr. Mack went into radio and television broadcasting in PA, early in life. In 1966, he and his wife Barbara were married. A passion for boating on the Chesapeake brought the family to Rock Hall in 1968. Mr. Mack worked at Kibler's Marina until he retired in 1995. He was also an active member of the Pepper Stepper Square Dance Club for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara Mack, of Chestertown, MD, and daughter, Karen Mack-Jones and her husband Richard Jones of Preston, MD.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday, April 14, 2015, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at McCune Funeral Home , 80 South Mountain Blvd Mountain Top, PA. Services will begin at 11 a.m. Interment will follow in Alberts Cemetery in Mountain Top, PA.
