“ I worked with Jim in the 6th district from 1962 to 1967. He was already on the force before me. He was great to work with, a real gentleman. We were both Lieutenants in different Detective divisions in 1979. He was an all around great guy and an excellent cop. I'm sure he will be missed by all his family and friends. I miss him.

*Sincerely,
Bob Morris*

“ My deepest sympathy to all of Jim's family and friends. I had the pleasure of taking Communion to Jim every week for Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church. He was always a joy to see, interesting to talk to and loved the Eucharist. I will miss seeing him but I will always keep him in my prayers. I was blessed to also know his beloved wife, Dorothy, and took Communion to her as well. He was so proud of his family, his heritage and his church. God's blessings to all of you at this time of loss. Because of his great love of the Lord, we all know he is where he wanted it all to end. Fran Wolfe
