

James Ignatius Menapace

December 3, 1965 - January 26, 2021

It is with deep sadness that we share the unexpected passing of James Menapace on January 27, 2021.

Jim leaves behind his mom, Eileen; devoted wife, Therese; and his three young children, Tommy and Christina (age 10) and Mary (age 7), who loved their daddy more than words can convey. Jim was an attentive dad who was involved in every aspect of his children's lives. Tommy, Christie, and Mary loved to cuddle with their dad, and in the summer, they enjoyed swimming in their backyard pool or playing in the backyard.

"Jimmy" was a kind, thoughtful, and pleasant man, who loved spending time with his family and friends. Jim was a loyal friend, as many of his friends can attest. He remained close to his friends from elementary school as well as St. Lawrence University and his time at Sodexo. He went to great lengths to stay connected to his friends, traveling to see them many times over the years. Jim was a lover of life and passionate about so many things. He loved watching sports over a beer especially, his frustrating NY Mets and the NY Giants. He was a proud and active Democrat, who together with his dad, would enjoy sharing with other his perspective which always seemed to contain an insider's knowledge about what was going on in DC.

Jim enjoyed a successful law career that spanned more than 30 years including his role as Assistant General Counsel at Sodexo. He was a graduate of St. Lawrence University, Dickenson School of Law, and the Johns Hopkins University Carey Business School. While an undergrad, Jim spent a semester at American University and enjoyed an internship for Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan of NY. He also started a "Biden for President" club at SLU-- while he may have been the only member, this was the start of his love of politics.

A fund has been created, linked below, in lieu of flowers to provide an avenue for Jim's family, friends, and colleagues to sustain Jim's legacy and his goal to provide for his children's future educational endeavors.

Jim leaves us way too soon, and he will be sorely missed by his family and his many friends, neighbors, and colleagues. His nephew Sam said, "Uncle Jimmy was a great man, a great uncle, a great father, and a just a great person to have a conversation with."

He is predeceased by his father, Lawrence Menapace; brother, John Menapace; uncles John Mullan Jr., James Ignatius Mullan, and Edmund Mullan.

Jim is survived by his wife, Therese Woods; three children, Thomas, Christina and Mary Menapace; his mother, Eileen Menapace; sister, Barbara Menapace LaPilusa (John); uncle and aunt, Phillip Mullan (Janet) and Pat Mullan (Charlie); aunt, Nancy Mullan (Edmund.); three nephews, Jack, Chase and Sam LaPilusa.

She is survived by many loving friends, many of whom were considered to be family members.

We ask that you please keep his mom Eileen, wife Therese, the children, family, and loved ones in your thoughts and prayers.

Services will be private due to Covid but anyone may attend virtually at 10:00 am on Wednesday, February 10, 2021, at the link below:

“ Prayers for Jim, his wife and wonderful family. Jim was a player on my CYO basketball team in St. Mary's Wappingers Falls. It was my first coaching assignment. He was a good player and a wonderful person. In the past few years we communicated on Facebook. He was a very sharing person. Jim was a follower of Marist College thanks to his Dad. Jim knew the history and stories of Marist from 1975 and on. I was shocked when I saw his obituary. May he Rest In Peace!

“ I only met Jim once but was struck by what a fine man he was. He had just driven his family all the way up to Ontario for a visit with my parents during my Dad's last summer. We shared a beer at the local brew-pub and I certainly looked forward to doing it again some time in Maryland.

I will always remember and be grateful for his kind words at my Dad's passing.

I attach a photo from their visit. Unfortunately Jim is not in this picture, he was the fellow taking the picture.

“ Jim was an AMAZING dad even before he officially became one! "Tough Guy" is the godfather to my son Sean. All of my children loved him, his jokes, his belly tickles and play wrestling. Through work at Sodexo, he would often visit our family in New Jersey. We had lost touch over the years, but we all cried when we heard about Jim's passing. Much love to you Therese, your children and to all who will miss him. Love, Patrice Comeau (Stewart)

“ Oh, gosh. Jim was my best friend at Sodexo. He would stop by my office weekly just to chat. Even stopped by my home one summer evening. We swam in his pool and enjoyed a beverage or two. May God bless Jim and his family. Love you and miss you pal. RIP
