“ Wish the best to his family during this time of mourning. As a coworker, he was a lively and genuine person who certainly has a positive effect on me. Fun and insightful guy, always had this youthful excitement in him as we would pull in the nets to ID and count fishes.

“ I am very sorry to hear this. I worked with Jim for a year and a half in the early nineties on the shad and herring project. He was an enthusiastic guy. He really got into fly-tying and fly-fishing while I was there. After I got a job with Delaware, we got together to go fishing. I really liked Jim and tried to stay in touch with him. He was a good biologist. Des Kahn
