

James "Benny" Rash

February 1, 1950 - February 21, 2016

James "Benny" Rash of Florence, SC, passed away February 21, 2016, surrounded by his immediate family. He was 66 years old.

Born February 1, 1950, in Millington, MD, he was the son of Katherine W. Robinson and J. Carville Robinson of Millington, Joanna Rash of Chestertown and the late James E. Rash. He graduated from Galena High School, Class of 1968, where he enjoyed playing sports. Ben was a U.S. Navy Veteran, serving on a goodwill vessel to South America. He worked in domestic appliance retail for most of his career; he enjoyed meeting new people and reconnecting with old friends. Ben found great joy working in his garden, annually competing with his Dad to produce the first red tomato of the season. In recent years he found great joy spending time with his beloved dog "Barney." He loved his Philadelphia Phillies. No matter where he called home, he was a Philly fanatic.

Ben is survived by his soul-mate, wife, and best friend, Carol of Florence, SC; daughter, Brooke of Charleston, SC; his sister, Jane Tosten and her husband Glenn of Middletown, DE, one brother Jack Robinson of Columbia, MD; two nephews, Glenn Tosten of San Salvador, El Salvador and Corey Tosten of Galena MD; one niece, Kaitlyn Robinson of San Diego, CA; two great nephews, Andrew and Charlie Tosten; one great niece, Emily Tosten; a very dear cousin, Robert A. Walters of Ocean View, DE; and several other cousins, aunts and uncles.

A graveside service will be held May 14, 2016, at 11 a.m., in the Asbury Cemetery in Millington, MD. Rev. David Kelly will officiate.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions in his memory to the Asbury United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 187, Millington, MD 21651.
