

James Bernard Roy Jr.

May 12, 1963 - February 26, 2025

James Bernard Roy, Jr. 61, of Queenstown, Maryland passed away quietly on February 26, 2025, surrounded by his family and close friends.

Jim was born on May 12th, 1963, to James Bernard Roy, sr. and Genevieve “Jean” Veronica Roy (Meehling) in Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated from Kent Island High School in 1981. In 1987 he met the love of his life, Lynne (née Aorilio) whom he married in 1989 at the St Christopher Catholic Church in Chester, Maryland. Jim and Lynne shared 35 wonderful years together, living on the Eastern Shore.

Jim had a keen business acumen, having tremendous success as the owner of Beauty Schools in Maryland and Pennsylvania, a long career at Long Fence, and, for the past 11 years, as owner of Economy Tree Service. He was well known for his ambition and hard work ethic.

In 1982, Jim became a member of Alcoholics Anonymous and was 42 years sober at the time of his passing. In sobriety Jim was especially known for helping others in their recovery. He volunteered for the Queen Anne County Drug Free Coalition for 25 years and served on the Queen Anne County Drug and Alcohol Council. In addition, Jim sponsored and directed recovery outreach at the Queen Anne County Detention Center.

Jim was an active, recognized member of the community. Notably, he supported renovation efforts at the Historic Christ Church in Stevensville, contributed services-in-kind to the Queen Anne’s Historical Society, and generously contributed to many other causes.

Jim had a zeal for life that was evident by his many interests. He was known for his love of fishing and crabbing, and, just for fun, he became an avid beekeeper. He enjoyed visiting Harrington Casino and the New Jersey flea markets. With a daunting collection of 30+ cowboy boots and his signature black cowboy hat, Jim loved everything western, never missing the National Finals Rodeo with his wife Lynne over the last 15 years.

Jim is survived by his wife Lynne Francis Roy, his mother Genevieve Roy, his aunts and uncles, a multitude of lifelong friends, his loving dog Cocoa, and a multitude of family and life-long friends. Jim is predeceased by his father Jim, Sr. and his beloved brother William "Billy" J. Roy. He will be greatly missed by all that knew him.

There will be a memorial gathering on Tuesday March 11th, 2025 from 5pm-8pm at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home 408 S. Liberty St. Centreville, MD 21617. The memorial mass will be held on Wednesday March 12th, 2025 at 10:30am at St. Christopher's Catholic Church 1861 Harbor Dr, Chester, MD 21619.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a memorial donation to: Friends of Queens Anne's County Animal Services, Queenstown, Maryland 21658 or to Friends of Historic Christ Church.

“ I worked alongside Jim for the past decade on many projects cutting trees down on our airports throughout the Eastern Shore. Jim was such a positive light and always wanted to do everything and everyone right. He is one of the most caring and thoughtful individuals I have ever encountered in the construction industry and deserves a special spot in heaven. I will deeply miss seeing his smile and getting his phone calls. There won't be a day that goes by in my career where I am planning to cut trees on an airport that I won't think of Jim.

*Fly peacefully my friend!

“ Dear Lynne, Thinking of you and Jim's Mom as well as all of his family and friends. Every time the strong winds have come through, we have thought of Jim as he was our go to fo our wooed lot. We have had the pleasure of knowing him for many years. I cannot begin to imagine your pain. Jim was such a wonderful guy. Please know we are praying for you and if I can be of any help, even though you don't know me, I will be there. Our hearts are with you.

“ Jimmy, thank you tremendously for being a true inspiration to many of us. So many of my childhood memories involve you. I will always be grateful for the amount of love you showed to all of the kids in the family. I will miss you and your cowboy hat at the family reunions. I'm sad to see you go but I'm so glad you're no longer in pain. Rest easy cousin. I know Uncle Jim and Billy were there to greet you at those pearly gates ❤️
