“ It's so sad to hear of Jim's passing. I will always remember the days when we were growing up in the Cape, carrying on and having a good time. Or the moments we would share a word or two when we ran into each other in town. You will be missed.##imported-begin##Jesse King##imported-end##

“ He probably didn't belong in the twentieth century never mind the twenty-first. I know he leaves both an extensive library and probably an arsenal. He had an informed opinion on just about everything. A conversation with him was eventful. But most important, he was a decent and thoughtful man whose tongue talked of justice and who had the law of God in his heart. Ps.37.##imported-begin##Leo Hylan##imported-end##

“ I just read of Jim's passing and I'm heart sick. Jim was truly one of the good ones. He was a great guy both in and out of the courtroom. As a recently retired state trooper, working the upper shore my entire career. Jim and I crossed paths several times a year. Jim never failed to stop, shake my hand, take a deep breath (as to relax) before we entered into a short personal conversation (no work allowed). You see Jim and I had so much in common that we could have been brothers. We both attended High School in Anne Arundel Co. at the same time, he @ Annapolis HS and I @ Arundel HS. We both settled on the shore. Where we worked for those in trouble. Though I never shared the same field, woods or blind with Jim, or fished from the same boat or rode next to to him on my motorcycle. We charrished these things and would always be a topic of conversation at our next meeting. The hardest part of retirement is losing contact with the good ones. Every referral I sent Jim, came back to me to thank me that referral. It seems that every one is a little better for knowing Jim I know I am. To all of his family and close friends my thoughts and prayers are with you all. Buzz##imported-begin##Ed Buswell ##imported-end##

“ It is with great sadness that I write this remembrance of Jim. He was a wonderful neighbor and friend for six years to Kenny, Ande, Katie and me. The first day we moved into our house in the Preserve, he presented me with an Audubon book of birds with the inscription, "Enjoy your new feathered friends". Many times since that day we enjoyed our feathered visitors and even called upon Jim to chase away our bear visitor. He will be sorely missed by us all.

“ I'm sorry to hear of Mr. Baldwin's passing. I am glad that I had the opportunity to meet Mr. Baldwin & thankful for his help in the past. I will always remember the first time I ever met him after talking to him on the phone for several months...he walked into the courthouse with a navy blue blazer, blue oxford shirt w/tie, khaki pants, his cowboy boots and his confident smile. I was actually relieved that he wasn't a 3 pc suit type of lawyer...I felt more comfortable with him being real. He always held his head up high & walked with confidence. My sincerest sympathy goes out to the family. Thoughts and prayers are going out for the family as you go thru this painful & trying time. Hold tight to the memories & he will be always close to your heart.##imported-begin##Tammy Payne##imported-end##

“ I am so touched about the passing of Mr. Baldwin. Yes, he was a gentleman in every way. It was an unfortunate situation in which I got to meet Mr. Baldwin, but also a blessing to have known him. I pray that the family will find the strength that they need in the comfort Jesus' arms. May you continue to hold all of those memories and apply them to your own lives to get through these times. God Bless the family and close friends and associates are truly going through and trying to make it through these rough days and days ahead. God Bless you all and let's pray for one another.##imported-begin##ARLETTA QUAILES PITT##imported-end##

“ I am just overwhelmed to learn of Jim's passing. I worked for Jim, part-time answering phones, which turned into full-time for nearly five years, and it was his desire for helping people at their lowest points that brought out the best in him and inspired me.

One of the things he said that has stuck with me all these years was, as he would shake a client's hand he would lean in and say, "I wish we were meeting under better circumstances." I knew he meant it, and he was always sincere.

I am forever grateful to him for letting me get my foot in the door and for everything I learned from him. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Tina Buttner##imported-end##

“ Jim was an excellent lawyer and friend. He always took the time to help when we were in need and never once did he ever give us a reasons to think he couldn't help us. We live in Kissimmee FL now and one of the things we'll miss the most is knowing that if we ever need a lawyer Jim won't be there. We are sorry for you're loss. He will be missed very much and peace be with him.##imported-begin##Darrell and Tami Fitzgerald ##imported-end##
