

James L. Bridges

June 22, 1923 - June 30, 2008

James “Jim” Levan Bridges, 85, of Mallard Landing, Salisbury, MD, went home to be with the Lord on Monday, June 30, 2008.

Born in 1923, he was the son of the late Cleveland and Mary Bridges and grew up in Neavitt, MD. After graduating from St. Michaels High School in 1941, he entered the U.S. Navy and served during World War II as a Machinist Mate Second Class aboard the USS Charles Lawrence. After his honorable discharge from the Navy, he worked on the Matapeake Ferry until 1952 when the Bay Bridge was built. He then worked at Waverly Press as a maintenance supervisor until retiring in 1982.

A member of Harvest Fields Church in Salisbury, MD, he was also a member of the V.F.W. and enjoyed refinishing furniture, caning chairs, tennis, golf, reading, crabbing, fishing and sports of all kinds.

Mr. Bridges is survived by his loving wife, Claudia Sewell Bridges, whom he married in 1944; his son, Paul bridges and his wife Virginia. He adored his granddaughter, Tonia Prouse and her husband Jay; grandson, Justin Bridges and his fiancée Annette Berrera; and his great-grandchildren, Mariah, Jayden, and Bryn. He was predeceased by a sister, Betty Boinski and a brother, Weldon Bridges.

Funeral services will be held on Monday, July 7, 2008 at 2:00 PM at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton, MD with Pastors Justin Bridges and John Tyler officiating. Friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Burial will be at Woodlawn Memorial Park, Easton, MD.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Harvest Fields Church, PO Box 276, Fruitland, MD 21826.
