“ We are friends and neighbors of Jim & Bevs'. Jim will be greatly missed by both of us. He was a wonderful friend and a very strong person to go through all that he did. We both love him and Bev dearly. He always had a smile and comforting words no matter how bad he felt. He always asked how we were doing. I know he is no longer in pain and is an angel watching over all of us. He loved his family very much and we wish them all well.##imported-begin##Bob & Shirley Fonner##imported-end##

“ IN THE SHORT TIME THAT I KNEW JIM AND HIS FAMILY MY LIFE WAS RICHLY BLESSED. JIM AND HIS LOVELY WIFE BEV ARE THE BRAVEST PEOPLE I HAVE EVER MET. JIM TOOK EVERYDAY AND LIVED IT TO ITS FULLIEST. EVEN IN HIS DARKEST DAYS JIM WAS THE BRIGHTEST LIGHT IN THE ROOM. WHEN EVER YOU SAW HIM HE JUST HAD A WAY TO MAKE YOU SMILE. I WAS FORTUNATE THAT IN HIS LAST FEW DAYS WITH US I WAS ABLE TO SPEND THOSE PRECIOUS MOMENTS WITH HIM AND HIS BEAUTIFUL FAMILY. BEING A SECRETARY I WAS UNABLE TO TREAT HIM MEDICALLY BUT THERE WAS ONE WISH HE HAD THAT I WAS ABLE TO FORFILL. JIM ASKED ONE DAY FOR AN ICE CREAM SANDWICH AND EVEN THE CAFE' WAS CLOSED I GOT HIM THAT ICE CREAM. HE WAS JUST SO HAPPY. SO FOR ME IN SUCH A SMALL WAY I WAS ABLE TO RETURN THE KINDNESS AND THOUGHTFULNESS TO HIM. MY LIFE HAS BE CHANGED FOREVER BECAUSE OF JIM AND HIS FAMILY AND I AM SO HAPPY THAT NOW HIS IS FINALLY WITH OUR LORD! THAT IS THE GREATEST GIFT EVER. SO I SAY TO YOU JIM YES MY DEAR YOU HAVE WON.##imported-begin##JENNIFER ROBERTS##imported-end##

“ Jim was our "computer guy" at Adkins Arboretum and everytime I would see him crossing the parking lot I would get a big smile on my face because he always entered the building with a positive energy and he always brightened my day. No matter how bad he was feeling that day, Jim would always find someway to crack a joke. I admire his strong will to live and his love of his family. My co-workers and I truly adored Jim.##imported-begin##Heidi Fellon##imported-end##
