

James Patrick O Ferrall

February 20, 2003

James Patrick "Pat" O'Ferrall of Marydel, MD died on February 20, 2003 at Kent General Hospital in Dover, DE. He was 65.

Born in Cambridge, MD on February 10, 1938, he was the son of the late James O'Ferrall and Elise O'Ferrall of Arizona.

"Pat" attended school to the 8th grade in Trappe, MD, and as a voracious reader he was self-educated through literature. Mr. O'Ferrall was a mechanic, specifically working on trucks. "Pat" was a great lover of bluegrass music and hosted many bluegrass shows as master of ceremonies and was a life member of the Eastern Shore Bluegrass Association. He was easily recognized by his trademark black derby hat, which he wore proudly.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by a special friend, Beverly Clough of Marydel, MD; a son, Shane O'Ferrall of Tennessee; a sister, Lois Baker of Trappe, MD; a brother, Bill O'Ferrall of Texas; two grandchildren, Daly and Kerrie O'Ferrall of Tennessee and three step daughters, Bonnie Clough of Barclay, MD, Lori Clough of Wye Mills, MD and Penny Reel of Centreville, MD.

Memorial services will be held on Thursday, February 27, 2003 at 11:00 A.M. at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 130 Speer Road, Chestertown, MD. Interment will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Magnolia Hall Nursing Center,
200 Morgnec Road, Chestertown, MD 21620.
