

Jane Belle Bridges

May 25, 1958 - October 17, 2020

Jane Belle Bridges, 62, passed away peacefully in hospice care in Easton, MD, after a brief illness, on October 17, 2020.

Jane was born on May 25, 1958, in Easton, MD, to Donald and Carolyn Bridges. She grew up in McDaniel, MD, on her parents' farm and loved her horses. She worked at the Crab Claw in high school and in the dental field later until she opened her own daycare which she ran for many years. After she closed her daycare, she worked until retirement as a monitor technician at the Easton hospital.

Jane, a loving and devoted mother, is preceded in death by her daughter, Annie Jacobson. She is survived by her former husband, Richard Jacobson; their children, Ryan, Chris and Carolyn Jacobson; and her grandchildren, Bennett, Levi and Claire Jacobson.

A private memorial will be held to say goodbye, and her ashes will be scattered in a special place that she chose.

“ It seems that the only time we see much of family is at weddings and funerals. These days, not even at funerals. Please know that I feel the loss as you do but will hold to the memories of happier days. May God Bless and comfort all of Janes family and friends.
