

Jane Drendall Crowding

September 11, 1926 - July 26, 2024

Jane Drendall Crowding of Worton, MD, passed away on July 26, 2024 at the age of 97.

Born the second of seven children to Fredrick H. Drendall and Jane Maslin Drendall in Wilksbarre, PA.

In her early teens her family moved to New Castle, Delaware where Jane worked during WWII at Bellanch Aircraft building planes to aid in the war effort.

Married to Donald Crowding who predeceased her in 1990.

Along with her husband and Father-in-law, they owned and operated Crowdings Peir at Betterton Beach until the early 1970's. They then owned Crowding's Store in Worton, MD.

Always kind and positive, Jane spent many years enjoying the friendships of her lady friends, meeting for lunch or dinner every Thursday for over thirty years. She especially cherished her friendships with Ann Gill and Ginny Crew. Family was very important to Jane, and she loved the holidays spent with children and grandchildren, always making everyone feel special.

Along with her husband she was predeceased by two brothers and three sisters.

Jane is survived by her children Francis Donofrio, William Crowding, Donell Smith, Libby Bramble, and Debbie Emmons, her sister Claire Sherman and brother-in-law Dan Loller. 7 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held privately in Still Pond, MD. In Lieu of flowers contributions can be made to the Animal Care Shelter of Kent County 10168 Worton Road Chestertown, MD 21620.

So sorry to hear of Aunt Jane's passing, I loved her and uncle Donald. Some of my fondest memories growing up was when we would all get together - she was always so positive and funny, and her husband Donald had the biggest laugh and presence. They were such a positive couple and she was always so caring and complementary to everyone. She was blessed with a great family and long life, condolences and hugs to the family.
