

Jane Marcia Holman

August 8, 1935 - July 10, 2017

Jane Marcia Holman, 81, died on July 10, 2017, in Easton, MD.

Born on August 8, 1935, in New York, she was the daughter of the late Charles Carroll Ewart and Ethel Cabot Ewart.

Jane was a career army wife and raised two children. She later became a psychiatric nurse (RN) and continued to work until her mid 60's. After she retired from nursing, she worked with Talbot social services as well as Home Instead senior care. She was an active volunteer with Freedom Rowers, Talbot Humane, the Maritime museum and, most recently, the cancer center in Easton. She was also an active member and supporter of her local VFW.

She was an inspiring cancer survivor and an amazing role model to her children in how to face life's difficulties. She loved gardening and sailing.

She is survived by her children, Wendell "Phil" Holman and his wife Lisa, of Perryville, MD, and daughter, Deborah "Deb" McFarland and her husband, Barry of Cordova, MD; her identical twin sister, Janet McClennan and her husband Scott of NY; and a brother-in-law, Leo Hogan of NY. She was preceded in death by her sister, Judy Hogan.

Services will be private.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Talbot Humane,
P.O. Box 1143, Easton, MD 21601.

“ I had the pleasure of being Jane's hygienist for the past 10 years. I always looked forward to our 'time ' together. She was always so upbeat and enthusiastic in whatever was new in her life. She was very caring and talked lovingly of her family. She will be missed.
