“ I have only now found of Jane's passing. I dreamed she came to me, and that she was dead, which sent me searching on the internet. A strange dream, seeing as Jane passed on 4 years ago.

Still, the news is fresh to me and I am so sorry for your loss. And sorry for the illness that took her.

I was Janie's roommate at University of Maryland, and the Maid of Honor at her wedding, and she will always be "Janie" to me. A fresh, bright, warm, sparkling young girl with the shock of curly red-gold hair, freckles and her mother's gorgeous smile that lit up a room. She was so vibrant and so ready to embrace life. And she did.

I last saw Janie after she and Mike had relocated to Easton. I drove down from Wilmington DE one day to chat with her and see her infant son. "My little monkey" she cried out affectionately as she picked him up from his nap. It was obvious that she had found what she wanted for her life.

I think we were all fortunate to have known her, and I'm she has left many good memories for her family and friends.

God's grace to all of you.

“ There are no words that can convey my sorrow at the loss I feel. Though I haven't spoken to Jane in the last few months, I always knew she was there - a constant beacon of hope and never-ending joy. I will miss her terribly.

Mike, Alys, Chris and Heather - may her amazing scrapbooks and pictures bring you cherished memories for years to come, and may the loving God of this universe hold you in His loving arms to help you through this very trying time.

God bless you,
