

Jane S. Reddie

August 4, 1918 - June 11, 2010

Jane Stewart Reddie, of Oxford, MD, died Friday, June 11, 2010, at William Hill Manor. She was 91.

Born on August 4, 1918, in Robins, NC, she was the daughter of the late, William Edward Stewart and Grace Perry Stewart. After the family moved to Maryland, she graduated from Preston High School and attended Salisbury Normal (Teacher's) School.

She attended Christ Episcopal Church in Easton, was active in the American Red Cross, the Talbot County Humane Society, and was a volunteer at the Memorial Hospital at Easton.

She is survived by two daughters, Beverly Macindoe of Trappe and Patricia Freeman of St. Michaels; two grandsons, Neil Macindoe and his wife, Jean of Annapolis, and Basil (Chip) Tydings of Chicago; two great-granddaughters, Katie and Annie Macindoe; a sister, Margaret Harper; niece, Diane Spicer; nephew, W.W. Harper, all of Seaford, DE. She was preceded in death by her husband, William Reddie, and a brother, William Perry Stewart.

Burial will be private.

Memorial contributions may be made to Talbot Humane, PO Box 1143,

Easton, MD 21601.

Tribute Wall

“ Jane S. Reddie

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Jane S. Reddie

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Jane S. Reddie

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ Mrs. Reddie was always such a pleasant person to be around. She was a real Southern belle. She passed on so much to Beverly and Aunt Trish about birds and plants, and they are passing on their knowledge to Katie and Annie. We'll miss her smile, her laugh, and her gentle personality. Imagine what fun she is having in heaven now. Her mind is clear and her body is strong. We'll see you again Great Grandmom.##imported-begin##Jean Macindoe##imported-end##

June 23, 2010 at 07:38 PM