“ Grandma Jane was aunty Jane to me or "just Jane" as she would often say. Forever grateful for the years of work she put in to the development of Carcross/ Tagish First Nation. Jane is loved and respected by the Community of Carcross and the Johns family. She shall be missed. She is and was a unique woman, not many women could handle the many challenges of living in the last frontier, but she did it ease. God Bless Jane and her family.....Our love and prayers to aunty Roberta, Howard Jr. and Clayton and the rest of the family.....hugznheartz

“ I have fond memories as child in Tagish playing with Howard in the sandbox with his big Tonka trucks and Grandma Jane baking her wood stove biscuits. As a child my memories are faint but I do know for sure how much she loved Baby Howard , Clay and all the Johns cousins who gravitated to her cabin during the summer. Rest in Peace Grandma Jane.

“ Jane was a wonderful woman whom my parents and grandparents loved unconditionally. She was intelligent, compassionate, was fair, and had the best sense of humour ever. My first job 'away from home' was in Pelly Crossing, and I lived with her for the summer. She was an awesome human being and called a spade a spade. The World could use more people like Jane. She did not carry 'airs' nor look down upon people. RIP Jane. It was an honour knowing you! <3

“ Thank heavens for Aunt Jane who opened her arms to our family and made us feel like part of the extended Lussier family. Not sure who said...A mother is not a person to lean on, but a person to make leaning unnecessary. THAT was Jane.

“ The last time I seen my grandmother she told me a story about my brother howard, she said when he was little and they were living in Tagish she taught him how to make fire with a magnify glass, after that she left him alone, lol she said later on she could smell smoke, went outside and howard had her deck lit on fire. haha, she was telling me she couldn't believe she showed him how to do that.

“ I First saw Jane in Tagish when I was tall as the grass grows! She had a laugh in her that bellied up and made me smile to see her happiness! She was very gentle and had white hair! She loved the outdoors and she loved her man!
