

Janet Hunter Weaver

August 28, 2007

Janet Hunter Weaver, age 92, of Bridgetown, MD, died Tuesday, August 28, 2007, at her home.

Mrs. Weaver was born on December 25, 1914 in Burrsville, DE, to the late John C. Hunter and Lucy Burns Hunter. She was raised in Bridgetown, MD, on the Level Square farm, and attended Bridgetown School. She married Wilson "Ben" Weaver and they made their home on the Weaver farm in Bridgetown, where she was a homemaker. Her husband predeceased her in 1984.

Mrs. Weaver was an active member of the Bridgetown Church. She participated in Homecoming, where she provided baked goods. She attended the church until its closing.

Mrs. Weaver is survived by her daughter-in-law, Vivian Weaver of Henderson, MD; two grandchildren, Vicki Weaver Bostic of Ingleside, MD, and Tracie Weaver Riddell of Henderson, MD; a granddaughter-in-law Nancy Weaver of Parsonsburg, MD; eight great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. Her son, David Wilson Weaver; grandson, David W. Weaver, Jr., and her siblings, Joseph Hunter, John Hunter, Thelma Laird and Marie Glanding all predeceased her.

A graveside service will be held 11 AM on Thursday August 30, 2007, at Chesterfield Cemetery in Centreville, MD. A continued time of fellowship will immediately follow at Ingleside Community Center in Ingleside, MD.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to National Federation of the Blind, 1800 Johnson Street Baltimore, Maryland 21230 or to a charity of choice.
