

Janet Louise Leder

September 6, 2001

Janet L. Johnson, Leder of Prospect Bay, Grasonville, MD, died Thursday, September 6, 2001 at Anne Arundel Medical Center in Annapolis. She was 72.

Born in Corydon, IN, Mrs. Leder grew up in Arlington, VA. She graduated with honors from Catholic University, with a major in violin, and minors in voice and piano. She enjoyed fifty-one years of marriage to Col. Frederick D. Leder, USMC (Ret), who survives her. Janet and Fred enjoyed duty assignments in several locations, and retired to the Annapolis area in 1976. Her hobbies included miniature doll houses, cooking, and her spending time with her family.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Leder is survived by two children and their families, a son, David and Beth Leder of Cary, NC and their children, Suzanne, Christopher and Matthew, whose wife Michelle made Janet a great-grandmother with the birth of Katie on Sept. 2; and a daughter, Debby and Jim Grogan and their children Shawn and Sarah. Her only sister also survives, Nadine Alexander of Knoxville, TN.

The family will receive relatives and friends at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., in Chester on Wednesday September 12, from 1pm till 2pm. A graveside service will then be held at the Naval Academy Columbarium, in Annapolis.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society P.O. Box 132, Queenstown, MD 21658 or the American Lung Association 209 E. Market Street, Salisbury, MD 21801.
