

Janice M. Waudby

May 22, 1954 - December 23, 2009

Janice Mary Hutchins Waudby died on December 23, 2009. She was 55 years old.

Mrs. Waudby was born on May 22, 1954, in Bedford, England, to the late June Hutchins Garner. She attended Silver Jubilee School for girls, graduating in the Class of 1969. After graduation, she began working in retail until meeting her soon-to-be-husband, Thomas "Tom" A. Waudby, who was stationed in England for the U.S. Air Force. On May 5, 1976, they were married and resided in England. In 1979, she and her husband moved to Utah and then to Baltimore in 1980. In 1981, due to her husband's career with the Department of Defense, they moved to Bedford, England. In 1994, they came back to the United States, making their home in Odenton, MD, and later in Easton in 2002.

Mrs. Waudby enjoyed caring for animals, children, cooking, music, and caring for people.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one daughter, Erica M.A. McGraw and her husband, Mike, and a granddaughter, Madison McGraw. Her son, Aaron, predeceased her in 2004.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 am on Monday, January 4, 2010, at First Baptist Church of Easton, with a viewing at the church one hour prior.
