“ Jared Gannon, you were the love of my life. The concept of "forever" was supposed to be our next conquest. Words cannot describe how my heart aches daily. I look for signs of you everywhere. My soul will sing your name for all of eternity.

I remember taking your obituary photo with you; we were at the Deftones and Gojira concert up in Massachusetts. We were both so excited to be there, and I adore the fact that I took you on your first plane ride. The memories I made with you, the adventures we went on, will stick with me forever.

We truly had something amazing; our love felt like it was out of a fiction book. I even remember the very first time you told me you loved me on the beach under the stars. Overall, you were the kindest person I had ever had the privilege of meeting. You were bright, loving, compassionate, and absolutely hilarious.

I will love you forever and ever, and that's a promise.
