

Jayden Driss Oulahyane

October 3, 2006 - May 16, 2013

Jayden Driss Oulahyane gained his angel wings on May 16, 2013. He was 6 years old.

The beloved son of Karim and Kari (Hall) Oulahyane, Jay was born on October 3, 2006 in Annapolis and lived his entire life on Kent Island. He loved snuggling with his Mommy, watching sports with his Daddy, going to school at Kent Island Elementary, and spending time with his friends.

Jay Jay led a life full of daily seizures, medical challenges, doctors' visits, and therapies. But despite all of his physical limitations, Jay experienced more unconditional love in his 6 years, 7 months, and 13 days than most people do in a lifetime. Jay's smile came from deep in his soul and could brighten the darkest of days. He was adored by his family, friends, teachers, therapists, and nurses.

In addition to his parents, Jay is survived by maternal grandparents Don and Peggy Hall of Chester; paternal grandparents Driss Oulahyane and Zahra Moumeni of Morocco; Aunt Lori and Uncle Darin Aisquith of Annapolis; Uncle Matt Hall of Chester; Uncle Youssef and Aunt Melissia Oulahyane of Brandywine; Aunt Amal Oulahyane of Morocco; Aunt Nadia Oulahyane of Virginia; Uncle Amine Moumeni of Montgomery Village; Aunt Aicha Moumeni of Morocco; and cousins Kayla and Karly Aisquith, Whitney Lobianco, Yasmene Oulahyane, and Mohammed Almarzoug.

Jay taught everyone who met him about the importance of unconditional love and acceptance. To honor his memory and continue to spread this love, the family requests that you perform a random act of kindness and ask them to “Jay” it forward – and do something kind for someone else. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to The Jayden Oulahyane Memorial Fund, c/o PNC Bank, Attn: Aimee Villiard, 120 South Piney Road, Chester, MD 21619 and/or Hospice of Queen Anne’s – the organization that provided such amazing care for Jay AND his family at the end of his life. The address for Hospice of Queen Anne’s is 255 Comet Drive, Centreville, MD 21617.

The family will be accepting visitors from 2-4pm and 6-8pm on Tuesday, May 21, 2013 at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam 408 S. Liberty St. Centreville, MD 21617. The memorial service will be at 6pm on Wednesday, May 22, 2013 at the same location.

“ My heart is breaking for the family of this sweet loving boy. My daughter is in several of the photos in the tribute video and I can not imagine the tremendous loss of one of God's special angels. My heart, prayers and love are with you all. If you ever need anything or want to come by and visit please do. I admire your strength love and courage. Rest in peace Jay. You were a special gift on Earth and hopefully you have found peace.

“ From looking at the tribute video it is clear that Jay had a tremendous amount of love in his life .

God purposed for us to be able to live and love our loved ones forever on the earth, in peace with fellow humans and with the animal kingdom too-- without us having to experience sickness or death at all. The miracles Jesus performed while he was here on the earth were foregleams of what he would do on a worldwide scale when he becomes king of God's kingdom in the near future on the earth .

He raised the dead, healed the lame blind and deaf, and even calmed storms. Soon this old system will end and God will usher in the new world under his son's rulership.

My sincere condolences to the family. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) Our loving Creator has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) I offer my deepest sympathy.

“ I love and miss you so much, Jay Jay. You are my life, my love, my heart. I cannot wait until we are able to be together again. Until that wonderful day comes, I will live my life to the fullest and do everything I can to make you proud of your mommy. Thank you for being the wonderful son that you were. You taught me and so many others many things in your short life. I LOVE YOU, my sweet, sweet boy <3

*With all my love,
Your Mommy*

“ This is Arianna's grand mom & we shared a snippets of time seeing Santa & saying hi. You are in my prayers with Jayden. He is an extraordinary soul & your abiding love for him was such a gift to see. There is no doubt in my mind that when we are blessed to be with children with special needs, we are twice blessed to feel a love so profound and pure that it transcends the physical world. Have a peaceful day. Elaine

Matthew 19:14 Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” Once love has existed it may change form but never can it die.

“ To Jayden's Family: My heart and love goes out to your family at this time. I first met Jayden while working at Serendipidee in Centreville. He would come in with his mother and I would always chat and make over him while she shopped. What a cute little boy. He gave inspiration to many and will always be loved. Blessings to your family and God is surely taking care of him now. God Bless, Lynda H. Palmatary, Centreville.

Our dear Kari and family: Jay made this world a better place in just 6 short years. Most people do not leave such an amazing legacy in decades of a lifetime, and he lives-on through those whose lives he touched so profoundly. You are all in my heart, sweetie. Rest peacefully and be free, beautiful boy.
