

Jay E. Timms III

November 19, 2004

Jay E. Timms, III of Queenstown died on Friday, November 19, 2004. He was 17.

Jay Timms was born in Easton, MD on October 1, 1987 to James E. Timms, Jr. and V. Darlene Ewing Timms. He was raised in Queenstown, MD and attended Kent Island High School. Jay began working various jobs in the area, helping different people.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a sister, Dawn M. Williams Luongo of Queenstown, MD; maternal grandmother, Anne M. Williams of Chester, MD; paternal grandfather, James Timms, Sr. of Centreville, MD; three nephews, Jimmy J. Luongo, Mason Luongo and Gaven Luongo; and one niece, Gracelyn Luongo.

Funeral services will be held at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A. Chester, MD on Tuesday, November 23, 2004 at 2 PM. Family and friends may call to the funeral home one hour prior to funeral services.

Burial will be in Stevensville Cemetery, Stevensville, MD.

Tribute Wall

“ Jay E. Timms III

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Jay E. Timms III

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Jay E. Timms III

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ Wow I just found this I miss u so much bro its crazy ur gone u were so young nd so loved by many nd a great friend I'll always remember u bro I'll never forget u!

Tana Edwards - December 29, 2012 at 02:12 AM

“ wow i cant believe that no one signed your online guest book. its going on four years since you tragetically died and now you and glenn swann are up in heaven together. i will never forget the day you died and how hard it was to go to your viewing. i didnt go to your funearal cuz it hurt to bad to hear the service because i had just seen you in school again 2 weeks before you died. i kept every news article your name was in and i kept your rememberace paper they gave out at your viewing. i will never forget the good time we had together in english with mrs warren. may you rest in piece and never be forgotten##imported-begin##sam granger##imported-end##

September 18, 2008 at 10:48 PM