“ Amy, my thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family at this time. Your mother was a very sweet person, who gave of herself so fully. She not only served God through her work with the church and daily life, she was ready to help anyone who needed her. She had an infectious laugh, that I loved to hear, and a kind voice...even when we tried her a little when we were younger. (did we do that?!) haha! She will be missed so much, but I know she is up in heaven with our Lord, looking down, and will continue to keep watch over her family, and I'm sure anyone else who needs. She was a true Angel. Lighting a candle in her memory.

“ Very sad to hear of Ms. Jean's passing! She was a wonderful, kind, Christian lady and a caring, compassionate and professional nurse. She took me under her wing as a new nurse to long term care in 1995 and we spent many 11-7 shifts together at the Pines. My deepest sympathy to her family. What a blessing she was to the world. She will be greatly missed and long remembered.
