Jean L. Morse

St. Michaels:

Mrs. Jean L. Morse, 76, of St. Michaels died on Friday, September 02, 2011 at the Talbot Hospice House in Easton. Mrs. Morse was born in Crisfield, MD on May 7, 1935, the only child of the late Dorsey (Bud) Lilliston and Myrtle Wilkerson Lilliston.

Jean was raised in Pocomoke City and graduated from Pocomoke High School in 1953. After graduation, she was employed by the FBI in Washington, DC for several years. She was a retired school secretary, having worked for over fifteen years at St. Michaels Elementary School and for five years at St. Michaels High School. During this time, Jean also typed the manuscript for the best-selling book "Chesapeake" by James Michener. She was a member of St. Luke's United Methodist Church in St. Michaels, the Miles River Yacht Club, and AARP.

Mrs. Morse is survived by her husband of 56 years, William A. (Pat) Morse of St. Michaels, four children, Michael P. Morse, and his wife Ann, W. David Morse and his wife, Judy, Debra M. McQuaid, and her husband John, all of Easton, and Ellen Kelly and her husband Dave of Wilmington, DE. She was the proud grandmother of eight grandchildren; Megan, Brion, Julie, and Tara Morse, Sam and Anna McQuaid all of Easton, and Mitchell and Lauren Soper of Calvert County, MD. Jean is also survived by an Aunt and several cousins, and a host of friends.

A funeral service will be held on Thursday, September 8, 2011 at 11:00 AM at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in St. Michaels. Interment will follow in Olivet Cemetery.
