

Jean I. Gee

April 20, 2000

Jean I. Gee, 68, of Easton, MD, died April 20, 2000 at their home of heart failure and complications related to Parkinson's Disease.

Private arrangements were made immediately thereafter as per her wishes.

Mrs. Gee was born in Kulpmont, PA, and for the exception of a 6 year residence in Middlebury, CT, she had lived in MD for over 40 years. Her hobbies included stylish interior decorating, traveling, and volunteering with the Women's Auxiliary at the Easton Commission Shop, however, her passion and pleasure was golfing, both nationally and internationally, with her lifetime partner and husband.

Survivors include her husband of 46 years, Thomas Joseph Gee of Easton, a son, Mark Thomas Gee, and a daughter, Sharon Gee, both of Annapolis.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601 or to the local chapter of the Parkinson's Support Group, c/o Talbot Hospice House, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601.
