

Jeanne King Henkel

December 24, 1947 - May 21, 2017

Jeanne King Henkel passed away peacefully at her home in Longwoods, MD, on Sunday, May 21, 2017, with her family by her side. She was 69.

Born on December 24, 1947, in Morgantown, WV, to the late Herbert W. and Marjorie Tillis King. Jeanne was a 1966 graduate of Magnolia High School. She started her teaching degree at West Virginia University completing her fourth year at Fairmont State College in 1971.

That same year, Jeanne moved to Easton, MD, where she became a teacher at Easton Elementary School for the 4th and 5th grade. She was a teacher at EES until 1981, at which time she joined her husband's painting and wallpaper business. Mrs. Henkel's hobbies and interests included working puzzles, researching genealogy, sailing, curling, travelling and overseeing restoration of her home in Long Woods.

Jeanne is survived by her loving husband, Harry Alexius McG. Henkel; their precious gift and devoted son, Harry Alexius Henkel, II; two sisters, Marilyn King Ingold (Paul) of Greensboro, NC, Susan Leshner (John) of Newark, DE; a brother, John H. King of Morgantown, WV; five nieces; four nephews; and sister-in-law, Molly and her husband Rick Klau of Denver, CO.

A visitation will be held from 5 - 7 p.m. on Friday, May 26, 2017, at Fellows, Helpfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton, MD 21601. A funeral service for Jeanne will take place at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 27, 2017, at Easton Presbyterian Church, 617 N. Washington St., Easton, MD 21601. Burial will follow at St. Joseph's Cemetery in Cordova, MD.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Jeanne's memory may be made to the Chesapeake Curling Club, C/O Bruce Larson, Treasurer, P. O. Box 753, Easton, Maryland 21601; Potomac Appalachian Trail Club/ Glass House, 118 Park Street, SE, Vienna, VA 22180; Talbot Hospice, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601; and the Johns Hopkins Kelly Gynecologic Oncology Service (JHU). Please include her name and send funds to: Johns Hopkins Medicine, 550 N Broadway, Suite 701B, Baltimore, MD 21205, Jeanne was a guardian angel to many. She always put others needs first. She will be forever missed by her family and friends.

“ Stanley (66) and Sally Rawe Shreve (67) would like to tell the family of Jeanne that we are deeply saddened by the news of the loss of your loved one. Our prayers and thoughts are with you. She was a wonderful and generous person at Magnolia and very involved in school projects throughout the years. Jeanne will be remembered for her actions..Actions speak louder than words. God Bless You.

“ I looked forward each year at Magnolia Hlgh School 's reunion. She was always so friendly and kind and it was not a complete reunion without talking to her. Her parents lived up above us and I worked with her father and graduated with her brother. She will be missed and my deepest sympathies to her family and loved ones. God Bless. Iris (Deaner) Isaacs

“ Jeanne King Henkel was a "Lady" with discrete intellectual talents. As some have said once a teacher always a teacher and Jeanne used those skills as she journeyed through the pathos of life.

We will miss her contributions to the Easton Ruritan Club as our Treasurer.
