“ Jeanne and husband , Bruce were my across the street neighbor. In fact as a young bride Jeanne & Bruce were our real estate agents for our first house in Ardsley on Hudson. She was the best neighbor anyone could have. There was their dog “ Biggles” (Bigglesworth) who would amble over to steal our baby son’s (Harry) ball. Jeanne was always there for me. She was the best and I could spend so much time in her kitchen just about chatting which southerners often do. Our family moved about the same time she & Bruce moved to Chestertown. What a true lady and great friend. Kathie Peltz. She’ll be remembered for years to come because she knitted my 2 boys Christmas stockings!!

“ When I met Mrs. May at CRYCC I knew instantly she was a true lady with an incredible sense of humor about herself and others. She drank a whiskey sour and wore mink with abandon! My favorite story of hers, how she came to have a mink coat with an emerald green lining, is told by me often. Always dressed to the nines, with a twinkle in her eye, know no to all. I will remember her visit to Betterton and will cherish our friendship for the days and years to come. Rest In Peace Jeanne.
