“ Jeannette, we miss you so much - your brother and I. I have met so many people here that knew you and said what a wonderful person you were. I, of course agreed with them. You were the best sister and sister-in-law that we could have had. Wouldn't it have been wonderful to have both of us living here in the same area, but that just wasn't in God's plan. Miss you so much, your brother Bill and Eileen##imported-begin##Eileen Brice##imported-end##
