

Jeannette Rose Carter McGuire

September 8, 1930 - June 10, 2025

Jeannette Rose Carter McGuire was born 9/8/1930 by midwife at apartment on Boone Street, Baltimore MD to John Wilson Carter and Ruby Luella Heisterman Carter.

Jeannette attended Holy Name Grade School in Washington, DC, Notre Dame Academy in DC and Georgetown University, School of Foreign Services.

She married Lt William Joseph McGuire, Jr.

She retired from the Federal Government's Department of Labor in 1988 after 35 years of service in Human Resources and Labor Relations.

She had deep passion in all she did, art, birding, traveling, sailing and daily exercise of Yoga, Pilates, running and walking.

She was predeceased by parents, husband and son, William Joseph McGuire, III.

She leaves loving daughters Leslie McGuire Favre and son-in-law Bruno Favre, and Sharon Robertson and son-in-law Roy Robertson, 5 grand children, Suzanne Robertson (husband Michael George), Madeleine Favre, Sebastien Favre, Clare McGuire and Jack McGuire, and 3 great grand children, Jamie, Caitlyn and Bridget George.

A private celebration of her life will be held at a later date.