“ I had known Scott as friends who check in with each other a couple of times a year. He was always the kindest and wisest guy. When I didn't receive a response to several of my texts recently, I knew something was wrong and am shocked to hear of his passing. I know him as the most caring and warm dog father, a prideful CEO, and someone who was with words when you needed. RIP Scott. I am glad to have known you.

“ Scott was one of the angels that God gives on earth. I will always love him and the beautiful spirit that he shared with everyone. You made things easy like Sunday morning. Life will never be the same but now you can protect us all from above. - Love Alexis

“ I first met Scott in 1989 when I was in college and ran into him a few times over the next 10 years and on social media mostly since then. I was always so reserved and he was always such a warm people person, such an example. My church is praying for the family after this shocking unexpected loss.

“ It's beyond words to express the depth of sorrow we're feeling after learning of Scott's passing. It's not fair the duty family losing their little brother when having so much life left to live. His Witty nature with upbeat conversations will be missed when attending family functions.

Duty family always appeared close and protective of one another. A family tied with love supporting a wonderful bond, something not found as often these days making a truly unique memorable combination of great people.

Losing another member of the Duty family tears a piece of the heart as it seems only yesterday having to lay momma Duty to rest.

We pray for all family, friends and pets find closure to this horrific premature passing.

Some may not believe along this line but as for Eva and I we find comfort believing Death is not the end. Scott is with mom in a realm that awaits us all.

With utmost Love and Support.

“ SCOTT was one of the nicest guys I have ever met, as well as the hardest worker committed to racial justice. Memories and the spirit of Scott will always be with me, and I am sure, his brothers of NABWMT.

“ Like so many in the hospitality industry, Scott was a treasured friend and customer. He was always a wealth of information and a great resource for consultation but it was his genuine caring nature that I will always remember. We lost a very special person! My deepest sympathies to your family. Thank you for making the recommendation to donate in lieu of flowers. I was thrilled to support your local volunteer fire department in his honor!

“ We were saddened to hear of Scott's passing. I first met Scott when working for Interstate Hotels and Resorts but Scott and I stayed connected long after that tenure concluded. Funny, funny, (the first to laugh at himself) and caring are two words that immediately come to mind. Scott always reached out when he traveled West and we enjoyed our visits together. Scott was brilliant at his discipline but always willing to share with other. I will be grateful to him for the many times he took my calls "wanting to know more".

Scott Duty, a friend too many , too many to count. You will always be in my heart, dear friend.

With prayer and condolence,
