

Jeffrey Larron Young

March 3, 1948 - May 27, 2016

Jeffrey Larron Young from Centreville, MD, died Friday, May 27, 2016, at Anne Arundel Medical Center. He was 68.

Born March 3, 1948, in Washington, DC, he was the son of the late Lawrence and Lillian Letvin Young. He graduated from Wheaton High School and Murray State College in Kentucky. While living in Montgomery County, he created the SailSports Company. In 1983, he began working at BoatU.S. in Alexandria where he managed the Product and Wholesale divisions. West Marine purchased that side of the business in 2003, at which time he joined the team at Fawcett Marine. He retired in 2006 to work full-time on Reward, the historic home on the Corsica he and his wife Peggy spent the past 12 years restoring. Jeff's lifelong passion was boats and sailing. He made many offshore sailing trips; when he and Peggy owned "Freedom," a 47' Vagabond that they enjoyed sailing on the Chesapeake. He and Peggy spent nearly 30 wonderful years together. He will be deeply missed by many.

Jeffrey is survived by his loving wife and kindred spirit, Margaret "Peggy" Young of Centreville, MD; son, Jesse Young of CT; brother, Gary Young (Maureen) of Damascus, MD; special cousins, Steve, Michael and Marcy Meltzer; and his beloved cats, Vagabond and Peanut. In addition to his parents, he is predeceased by his brother, Alan Young.

Services will be private at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his name to The Animal Welfare League of Queen Anne's County at 201 Clay Drive, Queenstown MD 21658 or online at www.awlqac.org.
