“ Jen we had our ups and downs but you were still a friend! Even like most thought in high school a sister. We last talked on May 14th I still have all your messages and they will never be deleted so I can feel like you are here at times! I remember seeing you down at the water in Trappe. I really cant believe your gone girl! I love you no matter what has happened between us! R.I.P. baby girl!

“ When I first met you, you got into my tums and ate them all. I panic'd and your mom Tracey assured me you'd be okay! You were only two years old and what a beautiful young lady you became, how the years flew by. I love you

“ Jenn - I loved your times we shared. You always made me happy with your go-getter smile. You have beautiful hair. I'm so sorry we couldn't have more time together, but I know in my heart the Lord has taken you with Him in His rooms of glory. You're a beautiful mother and daughter. I'm so sorry your family has lost their beautiful Jenn. I think of you often and will always keep you in my heart. With Love from Cathy, your roommate and friend. Love always. God bless

“ I am missing your sweet smile and caring and our talks. As a roommate, you were wonderful and I am heartbroken by this devastating loss. You were a pleasure for me to see after a long day of dealing with the public and I always wanted to make your pain go away. I will give forward on your behalf. You will always be a tender spot in my heart and will think of you often -- your beautiful and serene face as you slept in the morning light in the room we shared for too short a time. I will carry your story so that others may not suffer as you did. I know you touched many lives, not just mine. I miss you. Love, Mary Heflin

“ I got you a job with me not knowing wether or not you would be an asset or not. You blew me away with your hard working skills on the first day. You worked circles around people that have been there for months in one day ! You were a go getter. I didn't know you long but what I do know of you is that you touched my heart. I love you Jenn ! Truly missed but never forgotten !
Love, Kathy
