

Dr. Jennifer Miller Crouch

February 26, 1968 - September 5, 2022

Dr. Jennifer Miller Crouch of Royal Oak, MD, passed away on September 5, 2022.

She was born on February 26, 1968, in Baltimore, MD, to Mary Louise Stevenson and the late Robert Lewis Miller. She graduated from Towson High School in 1986 and earned her undergraduate and Master's Degree from Towson University. She went on to earn her Doctorate of Audiology from the University of Florida.

Jenny was a devoted mother who enjoyed the beach, skiing, Wordle, and living on the Eastern Shore. She also was very passionate about her family, cats, and raising her backyard chickens. Jenny was a problem solver, a loyal friend and sister, and she will be missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, Robert Crouch; beloved daughter, Alice Anne; her mother, Louise Stevenson; her siblings, Robert Miller, Margaret Obrecht (Paul), and Emily Evans (Scott); and her in-laws, nieces, nephews, and many cousins.

Because of Jenny's love for all animals, her family has requested that donations be made in her memory to the Talbot Humane Society (talbothumane.org), Baywater Animal Rescue <https://www.baywateranimalrescue.org> cue.org, or an organization of your choice.

Services will be private.

“ Sending my deepest and most heartfelt condolences. My memories of time spent with Jenny and at the Miller home will always hold a special place in my heart. I will remember fondly her sense of humor, incredible fashion sense, and taste in music, specifically Neil Young and Squeeze. I looked up to her and was happy to reconnect briefly in our later adult years. Grateful for the time we spent. Much love to Alice and your entire family. She will be missed but not forgotten.
