

Jennifer Marie Thomas

July 24, 1973 - April 25, 2011

Jennifer Marie Thomas of Church Hill, MD, lost her battle with Melanoma cancer on Monday, April 25, 2011.

She was 37. During her fight with cancer, she showed incredible courage and had an abiding faith in our Lord Jesus.

Jennifer and her family received an outpouring of love and support from family, friends and the community during her fifteen months of treatment. She shared her love, encouragement and support with many others fighting melanoma cancer. She was an inspiration to all who came to know her. For all the love, encouragement and support they have received, the family is eternally grateful.

Born on July 24, 1973, in Baltimore, MD, she was the daughter of Robert L. McWhorter and Rosa M. McWhorter of Gambrills, MD. She was a graduate of Old Mill High School, Millersville, MD, and also attended Anne Arundel Community College. She worked at Snow Valley Water Company for several years, and it was there that she met her beloved husband of 13 years, Bryan C. Thomas. In addition, Jennifer worked as a real estate agent for Long & Foster Real Estate, Inc., from 2003 through 2008. She joined Chesapeake Realty, LLC in 2008 and continued there through 2009. She was voted Rookie Realtor of the Year of the Bay Area Association of Realtors in 2007, and served as Secretary/Treasurer on the Board of Directors in 2006 and 2007.

Jennifer had a very strong love for her family. She enjoyed gardening, cooking, photography, camping, interior decorating, her pets, vacations at the beach and going to her children's ball games. She was the leader of Girl Scout Troop 226 for several years and received a "Green Angel" award in 2009.

In addition to her husband, Bryan, she is survived by her three beautiful children, Dylan, Amber and Cody Thomas; her parents, Robert and Rosa McWhorter; her father-in-law and mother-in-law, Bryan and Carol Thomas of Stevensville, MD; her brother, Robert McWhorter, Jr., of Middletown, DE; her grandmother, Rosina Musumeci of Olney, MD; and numerous other relatives.

A Funeral Mass will be held on Friday, April 29, 2011, at 11:00 AM at St. Christopher's Catholic Church, 1861 Harbor Drive, Chester, MD. Family and friends may visit on Thursday, April 28, 2011, from 6-8PM at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, 106 Shamrock Road, Chester, MD.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Trust of Thomas Children, 220 Price Station Road, Church Hill, MD 21623.

The bond between a husband and wife is unlike any other and we know that both of you had a strong and loving relationship. Love leaves thousands of memories that no one can steal. Keep them forever bound within your heart. And when a secret memory pops in your mind unexpected, bring forth your brightest smile and wink to the heavens above with tremendous joy knowing she sees you and is at peace until she will be with you again. Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted. We pray God will give you strength to see you through this sad and difficult time.##imported-begin##Tom and Kathi Gell##imported-end##

“ With great sorrow and even greater respect to Jen , her journey through to Him was a very courageous and honorable one ! What we were able to obtain from her in the relatively short time we got to know her was that she was a fighter and a very strong lady ! But most importantly she was a mother and a caring wife to Brian ! How lucky her family was to have her ! Many have never had this and we should all be grateful for having been touched in one way or another by such an angel !
Jen , your family will be well looked after , as you are looking after them right now !

“ I give you this one thought to keep~
I am with you still ~ I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone~
I am with you still ~ in each new dawn.

“ I'm so deeply sorry for your loss. Jennifer touched my life in so many ways. My sister Tina died in December due to melanoma, and during Tin'a battle and even in her death Jennifer was there for me. She posted such kind words and emailed me alot with encouraging words; when she herself was suffering. Jennifer never complained to me, she helped through the most difficult time in my life. Jennifer called me "Sweet One" and I will hold that and our conversations in my heart forever. I wish I could've met her, just to give her a hug. Even though we never met I was as close to her as I am to most of my friends I see all the time. She lives on through her sweet children, again Im so very sorry. “ Bryan, Dylan, Amber, Cody, Mr. and Mrs. McWhorter,
The simple words of the human language can not come close to describing Jen. The genuine love, positive energy and kindness that she poured into every aspect of her life was above and beyond what most of us could even imagine from another human being. Jen was beautiful in every sense of the word. Not many people can leave such an impact on others as Jen did. I find it simply amazing how so many looked to her as their means of inspiration, hope and strength during her fight. She was right there, ready to give her support, assuring everyone it was going to be alright. Not a day will go by that she will not be in the hearts and minds of so many people. My heart aches for all of your pain. I know she is watching over you and smiling down on you. She was blessed to have such a beautiful family and she knew she was loved.###imported-begin##Regina Anawalt###imported-end##
