

Jennifer Lynn Willis

August 19, 1969 - November 3, 2017

Jennifer Lynn Willis (nee Van de Wal), 48, died Friday, November 3, 2017, at The Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore surrounded by her loving family after a three-year battle with glioblastoma (brain cancer).

Jennifer was born in Albany, NY, on August 19, 1969, to James and Katherine (Reinke) Van de Wal. She graduated with Honors from the State University of New York at Geneseo and earned her MBA at Loyola University of Baltimore. She had been working towards her Master of Divinity degree at Asbury University. Jen was employed by J. P. Morgan Chase as a Vice President managing many different projects.

Jen was devoted to her family and her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She was active in the Rock Hall United Methodist Church and was, with her husband, Tom, instrumental in founding and maintaining Rock Hall's backpack program.

Jen founded Faith in Action, was a Sunday School teacher, and coordinated the food pantry. She served on and chaired many church boards. Jen was proud to be part of the Delmarva Emmaus & Chrysalis Community. She was an inspiration to all and will be remembered for her steadfast faith throughout her illness. "I know who I am – I know whose I am – and I know where I am going!"

She was a loving mentor to many youth in the Rock Hall community. With her husband, Jen was very involved in Rock Hall Parks and Recreation, the PTA, and was a Girl Scout Troop leader for several years.

Jen enjoyed hunting with her cousins and boating with her family on the Hudson River in upstate New York.

In addition to her husband of 18 years, Thomas Willis, she is survived by her daughters, Kaitie and Kacey. Jennifer was predeceased by her son, Thomas Hunter Willis, Jr. She is survived by her parents and her brother, James Van de Wal, Jr., of Lake Tahoe, CA, and her sister, Kristin (Kevin) Dickerson of Rock Hall.

Jen loved her nieces, Madeline and Julie Dickerson, and was especially close to her cousin, Katherine (Kate) Van de Wal. Art and Mary Sue Willis loved Jennifer as a daughter – a treasured member of their family. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews are also left to cherish her memory.

A visitation will be held Friday, November 10, 2017, from 5:00 - 8:00 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, 130 Speer Rd., Chestertown, MD. Relatives and friends are invited to attend her funeral service which will be held at the Rock Hall United Methodist Church, 5730 N. Main St., Rock Hall, at 2 p.m. on Saturday, November 11, 2017. Visitation prior to the service 12 – 2 p.m. at the church.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Jennifer Willis Emmaus and Chrysalis Scholarship Fund, and sent to: Rock Hall United Methodist Church, POB 66, Rock Hall, MD, 21661.

“ This beautiful angel has obtained her heavenly wings! She was a wonderful inspiration as a daughter, wife, daughter-in-law, mother, friend and mentor - but first and foremost she was a child of God - and her faith and love of her Lord showed in EVERYTHING she did! We can only hope to live our lives for God as she did. May his angels wrap their wings of love, comfort and support around the entire family. And may you find peace in the knowledge that she is no longer suffering, and in all her glory at the feet of her Lord.

“ Tom and girls,all of Willis family,I am deeply sorry for your loss. Jen will be missed by all who touch paths with her.i truly believe that the greatest tribute we can honor Jen with,is for all who knew Jen to live like Her .To live in Christ each day,not just on Sunday. Our Father lended Jen to us for a short time,to show us how to live for him and thru him. Jens work on earth is done..She was a great mommy,wife,sister,counsler,daughter,a great in law ,comforter,confidant ,friend,but most importantly an angel here on earth,a child of God.thank you Jen,for your lessons you taught us while you were here .you have taught us all no matter what the circumstances,to never give up,to always have faith and to believe !!
