

Jenny Jane Inkell

March 28, 2006

Jenny Jane Inkell of Key West, FL, formerly of Royal Oak, MD, died on Tuesday, March 28, 2006, as a result of being a victim of a hit and run accident while riding her bike. She was 27.

Born October 18, 1978, in Ft. Belvoir, VA, she was the daughter of Oscar J. and Mary Louise Jones Inkell. She attended public school in Talbot County and then graduated from Hollins University in Roanoke, VA. Jenny worked at numerous local restaurants in Talbot County which allowed her to get the experience she needed to pursue her dreams and career in the hospitality industry with the Hyatt at Key West, FL.

A former choir member at Christ Church St. Michaels, she was also an active supporter of Locks of Love. In her spare time she loved to go fishing and boating with her family and friends. Jenny was never found without a smile.

In addition to her parents, Jenny is survived by her loving brother, Joshua J. Inkell of Boston, MA; and many loving aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 1, 2006, at 11:00 AM at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Easton.

Entombment will be private.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Locks of Love, 2925
10th Ave. North, Suite 102, Lake Worth, FL 33461.
