

Jeremiah D. Behan

June 11, 1949 - April 28, 2020

The obituary will be posted when available.

Tribute Wall

“ Jeremiah D. Behan

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Jeremiah D. Behan

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Jeremiah D. Behan

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ I have just learned of Jerry's passing. We went to high school together in Syracuse, NY, and although I don't believe I've seen Jerry since then, I remember him as a fun loving guy. What an accomplished life he lived. My condolences to his family and all who loved him. Rest In Peace, Jerry.

Mary Ellen Morrow Andrews - July 28, 2020 at 01:29 PM

Thank you so much, Mary. This is Dawn Whitson, Jerry's sister-in-law. What a wonderful message you have written here. Jerry was so wonderful, and we love and will always will miss him, too. His wife Darcy became ill right after she lost Jerry and she was never able to know of your kind remembrance. I only just today have read this. So beautiful of you. Darcy lost her own battle to live on October 19, 2022. Her obituary will be posted here soon. Our hearts are broken with sadness, yet we are so thankful for loving friends like you. May your life be happy, as happy as your message here fills with us joy in reading your kind words.

Dawn Whitson - October 23, 2022 at 09:45 AM

MB

“ Darcy, this is Mark Brown from your Tucson days (Bethany's brother)

I was reminiscing with Barrett about those days and how sweet you and Jerry were to me, a lost soul in Tucson town at the U. of A. Anyway, I always meant to reach out to you guys since my wife Roseann, an Annapolis, Maryland girl, I met in 1980, live closeby Leesburg in Vienna, VA.

My reminiscing was about BBQ'ing together in Tucson with the 1953 baby blue BEL AIR in the background and my favorite golden retriever ever, Jake being a good buddy to everyone.

Jeremiah had such a great spirit, so funny, so kind, and U2 were great together.

I always felt I attempted to emulate a relationship like yours with Roseann.

We just celebrated our 33rd but moved in together in '83. We never had children but we're happy folks.

I hope to pay my condolences in person some day. I have little hair but I'm still me.

Stay well &

Best to All,

Mark (& Rose too...)

Mark Brown - May 04, 2020 at 03:44 PM

DW

Thank you so much, Mark, for your beautiful message. This is Darcy's sister Dawn Whitson. Darcy and Jerry had a wonderful life together until Jerry was taken from her and the extraordinary love they shared. Six months later Darcy was shockingly diagnosed with lung cancer while she was doing all she could to recover and live a happy life after losing her precious love. She was so kind, loving and valiant. Last Wednesday, October 19, 2022, Darcy lost her own battle to live. It is with heartbreaking grief that I tell you this, after reading your tribute to Jerry. Soon here you will be able to read more about Darcy. It is a small miracle and huge gift that I came to Jerry's obituary page once more today, to find your message. What a wonderful gift to find from you. Darcy and Jerry were and always will be my Heroes. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Dawn Whitson - October 23, 2022 at 09:21 AM