“ Jessie, I'm so sorry we did not get to know each other very well. Time and distance have been barriers for many in our family. I do know our family in heaven will greet you joyously with open arms and what a reunion it will be. That guy who hug-squeezes you the hardest will be your great granddaddy, Charlie Boyd. As your mom loved you unconditionally, she will continue loving you and those you have left behind. No worries, they're in good hands. Until we will meet again in the great beyond, your cousin Chuck Boyd.

“My child, my heart and soul. I loved you unconditionally your entire life. I never, ever gave up on you. No good parent would. I so enjoyed these past several months spending time with you. You were so helpful to me and very respectful. Wow you surprised me with yellow roses on my birthday! I didn't know you remembered they were my favorite. You were so loved by your boys. Your little guy is struggling but we will take care of him. So glad you two were spending time together and getting hugs and kisses in. I hope your weary body has healed. I SO worried about your heart. It just gave out. I'm sure my Mom and Dad were ready to greet you with open arms in heaven. Until we see each other again..rest easy my son. I'm still your mother and I am still talking to you although distance separates us for now. Go rest your soul. Love you, Mom.
