“ Dear Shirley & family,

I went to school with vane and he was always one of the nicest people in the school. We all loved and respected Vane.

A few years back, he sent me some clippings that his family had saved from the 20's and 30's. They included some boxing bouts of my father, Smiling Bob Cosden and my uncle Bernard, known as Kid Cosden. They had boxed when his uncle had boxxed. It was so nice of him to think of us. But that is the kind of person Vane was.

I remember pllaying basketball with his sister Anne. Those where great times.

My thoughys and prayers are with you and your family. God Bless and keep you near in your sorrow.

“ We remember Mr. Voshell as a loving and dedicated father who beamed with pride during his children's numerous prestigious accomplishments.
I have many memories of Mr. Voshell just quietly shaking his head as we, then unbridled, adolescent girls, descended upon his home. He took it all in stride, made us feel welcomed and patiently watched as we grew into women.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time. We pray that you find comfort in knowing that Mr. Voshell's Heavenly Father is nodding His Head with approval as He welcomes His good and faithful servant.##imported-begin##The Clark Family##imported-end##

“ My heart is just breaking over Vane's passing. God put him in my life and me in his at such a crucial time for us both. He was an angel sent by God that helped me dig deep within myself to understand God's plan for me. He had such a way of bringing peace to my heart and I pray that I did the same for him. He would make me smile, the kind of smile that warms you from the top of your head to the bottom of your feet. I hope I was able to do the same for him. He was and always will be such an inspiration to me in a very loving and spiritual way. He showed such courage, determination, and grace in his battle with cancer. I truly believe this is just a small example of the way he lived his entire life. He has left behind such a beautiful family--a wife that is very much like himself. She also showed the same courage, determination, and grace as well as patience in her role as wife and care giver throughout this entire ordeal. Their children, Barry and Debbie, are carbon copies of those two beautiful people. I am so blessed and honored to have been truly welcomed by this wonderful family to be present at and share in the journey of Vane's passing. It is an experience that I will cherish for the rest of my days. Vane, til we meet again at Jesus' feet... I will miss you so much and I will love you forever!
