

Jesse Willis Hammock

September 15, 1940 - June 24, 2009

Jesse W. Hammock, a former jockey, whose career spanned four decades (between the 1950's and the 1980's) and numerous states (including Maryland, Florida, New York, Ohio, West Virginia, and Delaware, among others), peacefully passed Wednesday in the loving company of his wife Nancy L. Hammock, and his extensive family at his home on Maryland's Eastern Shore, in Queenstown, Maryland.

During his career as a jockey, Jesse won hundreds of races and earned more than $3 million in purses in a riding career that began in 1958 and ended in 1983. Jesse rode in numerous stakes races over four decades for top trainers in a dozen states. After his retirement as a jockey, Jesse became a full-time television cameraman for Maryland's International Sound Corporation and a clocker for the Daily Racing Form for the Maryland Jockey Club, helping oversee Maryland racing at Pimlico, Laurel Park, Bowie, and Timonium.

Memorial services for Jesse will be held on Monday, June 29, 2009 at 11:00 a.m. at Immanuel United Methodist Church in Grasonville, Maryland.

Donations in lieu of flowers may be made to one of the following organizations: Hockey Fights Cancer, the American Iris Society, the Permanently Disabled Jockies Fund or the American Cancer Society.
