

Jetty Townsend Fleetwood

June 18, 2009 - January 26, 2013

Jetty Townsend Fleetwood of Chestertown, Maryland passed away on January 26, 2013 at his home. He was 3 years old.

Jetty's impact on those who knew him— and those who only heard the story of his strength— will last far beyond his three years. His courageous fight will remain an inspiration. Jetty was loved, cherished and admired— and will be deeply missed.

He is the beloved son of R. Creg Fleetwood, Jr. and Jamie Larrimore Fleetwood of Chestertown, brother of Cregar Clay Fleetwood and Olive Redden Fleetwood, grandson of Richard and Lynn Fleetwood of Chestertown and C. Clay and Doe Larrimore of Chestertown and great grandson of Charlotte Sutton of Church Hill, MD.

The family will receive relatives and friends on Tuesday, February 5, 2013 from 12:00 – 2:30 pm at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home 130 Speer Road Chestertown, where a private service will be held at 3:00pm. In lieu of flowers, the family recommends contributions be directed to Chester River Home Care and Hospice 100 Brown Street Chestertown, MD 21620.

“ Jetty was such a fighter, for as many times as they told us he wouldn't make it and yet he would fight through. He was an inspiration to me and taught me so much without ever saying a word. I loved him so much and will always miss him and his special kind of "cuddles". I spent so much time with this family and I know just how special you all really are. I will miss watching his amazing journey but am at peace knowing that now he is in a place where he can run and play with other kids and know that we will see him again someday.

“ I express my deepest sympathies to your family . No doubt it is painful when someone we love passes away, especially when they're so young. However, the Bible leaves us a hope; Psalm 147:3 tells us that God "is healing the brokenhearted ones, And is binding up their painful spots." Yes, though it hurts to loose a loved one, we can always turn to God for the comfort we may need. May His comfort soothe your troubled hearts and bring you peace of mind as you go through this difficult time.
